The United Way of Kent County held its annual meeting on April 14th, 2011 with an agenda embracing board member and officer elections as well as their recognition of Volunteers who service United Way Member Agencies.

Newly elected President of the United Way of Kent County, Inc., Bill Noll, shared his goals for continued progress in contributions and support to member agencies“The United Way of Kent County is proud to partner with its Member Agencies. We raise funds in support of these Member Agencies to help them provide services to Kent County’s citizens for:

- Emergencies
- Crisis Intervention
- Investment in Youth
- Fostering Self-Sufficiency

After reaching our campaign goals for 2010, we now turn our attention to the next campaign year with high energy and enthusiasm. Our goal is to exceed the levels of contributions received prior to the recent recession.”

Bill Noll is a resident of Kent County, Maryland. He and his spouse, Barbara, moved from Michigan where they lived for 30 years. Bill is originally from Baltimore, Maryland. During his business career, he worked as a senior executive in the insurance industry and as a CPA in the public accounting profession. He is looking forward to his year of advocacy for the United Way of Kent County.
